115 [12/2]

Because of the shutdown in production at the Jollet arsenal. located 10 miles south of Joliet. the government is offering 2,703 |11 acres of land for lease to farmers of this region, C. C. Burns, project manager at the arsenal. announced today.

The land to be leased includes 1,705 acres of hay land, 835 acres B of crop land, and 263 acres of pasture land. Forms on which J offers may be submitted have s been sent to farmers and prop-|s| erty owners in the vicinity of the w arsenal, and others may be ob- or tained from Burns.

THE BIDS will be opened for v inspection at 2 o'clock in the af- 0 ternoon of Feb 28 in the arsenal S headquarters building, Burns said.

Most of the land to be offered for lease is on the area formerly y known as the Elwood Ordnance I plant. It includes a total of 2,420 acres, made up of 1,750 acres of v hay land and 715 acres of crop V land. The remainder of the land offered for lease is located acres, 57 acres, and 55 acres. The nance works reservation.

some which has not been touched 76 acres and 73 acres. since it's purchase by the gov- On the former Kankakee Ordernment in 1940 and 1941, as nance works reservation, land to well as some tracts that were be offered for lease includes 263 farmed under previous leases acres of pasture land, in tracts of and property which heretofore 143 and 120 acres and 120 acres has been uncultivated.

HAY LAND offered for lease at the former EOP reservation from Burns at Room 257 of the includes tracts of 1,154 acres, 149 Joliet arsenal headquarters buildacres, 107 acres, 93 acres, 90 ing.

in the former Kankakee Ord-crop land offered for lease at the same reservation includes tracts The land, burns said, includes of 230 acres, 223 acres, 113 acres, of crop land.

Bid forms may be obtained